The following ideas have been suggested by both the Productivity Commission and the NDIA as ways to improve planning. Do you agree with the following changes:

Change	Yes	No
Clear and accessible information to participants ahead of planning so they know what to expect.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Allow minor changes to plans without the need for a full review.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Allow people to view a draft of their plan before it is final.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Provide one person as a single point of contact.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>
Create specialised teams of planners with expertise in particular types of disability.	<input type="checkbox"/>	<input type="checkbox"/>

If you could give the NDIA one piece of advice on how to improve the experience of NDIS participants what would it be?
